PLAY THE COURSE
THE WAY IT WAS MEANT TO BE PLAYED.

The historic Temple Terrace Golf course, designed by renowned course architect Tom Bendelow, remains true to its original design. Here's your chance to play it with authentic era clubs and balls, and enjoy it as course pro and US Open champion "Long" Jim Barnes would have in the 1920s.

UNITED STATES PROFESSIONAL
HICKORY GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP HONORS
JOHN SHIPPEN – AMERICA'S FIRST GOLF PROFESSIONAL

John Matthew Shippen, Jr. was an African American/Native American golfer who competed in several early U.S. Opens. Tournament director Mike Stevens believes that "in creating a tournament to remember the game as it was first played, what better tribute than to honor the man considered to be the first American Golf Professional."
