Information and rules of the game

Playing Conditions:

Play will be in accordance with the official golf rules of the R&A Rules Limited, the betting rules of the DGV (unless otherwise regulated in this notice) and the current course rules of the Cologne Golf Club.

Equipment, golf carts, trolleys, carts and distance measurement:

Golf clubs built before 1935 and equipped with a hickory wood shaft are played. Club shaft materials other than wood and metal shaft inserts are not permitted.

Modern balls and balls approved by the R&A for competition, as well as golf balls designated in accordance with the Society of Hickory Golfers "Modern Equipment Guidelines", No. 5 are permitted. In cases of doubt, the match committee alone shall decide.

Only historical trolleys are allowed. As a matter of principle, we ask that you carry your golf bag.

Carts and electric trolleys are of course just as taboo as distance measuring devices of any kind.

Clubs for hire:

Sets of rental clubs are available (original pre-1935 clubs with hickory shafts). These can be hired if required, including insurance.

Rental fee per day: 30,00 Euro (incl. breakage insurance)

Dress code/etiquette:

We will play in historical clothing from the 1930's. For the men, plus fours, plus twos or knickerbockers are desired as legwear, as well as jackets, waistcoats, shirts, tie or bow tie, flat cap, hat. Ladies play in dresses, skirts (above the knee), blouses, jackets, hat, etc.

We ask that you refrain from using modern materials and garish colours (including rain gear, umbrellas, etc.). If you do not have the required outfit, you can find it at various costume rentals.

Costs:

Entry fee* for the 18-hole tournament: 95.00 euros, including dinner on 23.10.2021.

Entry fee* for pros and members of the Cologne Golf Club: 45.00 Euro

*Members of the "Dutch Hickory Society" receive an entry fee reduction of 5,00 Euro.

Participation:

Participation is open to amateurs who are members of a club affiliated to the DGV or an internationally recognised club and have at least a handicap of -36.0 or a club handicap of up to -45.0. Participants with a club handicap of up to -45.0 will be assessed for the net score with a handicap of -36.0. Professional players and golf instructors may also participate in the tournament, provided they belong to the German PGA or a recognised foreign PGA. If more than 80 entries are received, the entry list will be decisive. There is a waiting list.

Scoring:

The gross score will be divided into professionals and amateurs, provided there are professionals at the start. The net score will be divided into men and women. In the event of a tie in the gross score for the J.W. Buckland Trophy, the winner will be determined in a play-off immediately after the end of the competition. The play-off will take place on the 18th hole of the Cologne Golf Club until a winner has been determined. In the event of equal scores, the better of the last 9 holes shall determine the subsequent placings. In the event of further equality, the last 6, 3, 1 holes will be used until a decision is made, in net with a proportional handicap. In the event of a further tie, the winner will be decided by lot. The tournament will be played in groups of maximum 4 players.

Special team ranking for the prize "The Captains Barrel":

A team consists of a maximum of five players, of which the best four are included in the scoring (one string); the team with the fewest gross strokes wins.

Disqualification:

The match committee has the right to disqualify and immediately exclude participants from the tournament who violate one or more rules. A decision to this effect by the match management is final and cannot be appealed. There is no entitlement to a refund of the entry fee.
